World English Day and World Book Day Celebrations

The Department of English at SKBR Government Degree College organized a vibrant celebration on April 23rd, 2024, in honor of World English Day and the birthday of the legendary playwright, William Shakespeare. The event aimed to promote the significance of the English language and commemorate the literary contributions of Shakespeare. Dr.J.Lakshmi Kumari, Principal presided over the function and explained to the students about the importance of English language in today's world. Sri T.Polaiah, Lecturer in English addressed the gathering about Why English language is important in our life? The English language is undoubtedly one of the most widely spoken and influential languages in the world. The English language is useful for personal growth and useful for the day-to-day usage. Dr.B.Srinivasa Rao, Lecturer in Hindi also addressed the gathering about the importance of the day and reminded the character Shylock, a Jewish moneylender, demands a pound of flesh from Antonio, the titular merchant, as collateral for a loan. When the case goes to trial, the Duke of Venice presides over the courtroom, where mercy and justice clash in a dramatic confrontation in one of the play of Shakespeare, The Merchant of Venice. Dr.O.Kasibabu, Lecturer incharge delivered his address to the gathering, emphasizing the importance of English language and literature in today's globalized world. He concluded the programme with a formal vote of thanks.

April 23 is designated by UNESCO as World Book Day, a celebration of books and reading. It's a day dedicated to promoting literature and encouraging people, especially young ones, to discover the joy of reading. The day is also celebrated by the librarian Sri. Chennaih.
